What is J-FORCE?

The Josiah Leadership Movement, or J-FORCE, is a movement of young people between 12-30 years old, with the vision to develop moral and ethical transformational leadership as a lifestyle to bring change to the community and the nations. We stress moral, ethical, and transformational leadership to develop the next generation of leaders.

What do we do?

We specialize in:

- Leadership Development
- Community Engagement
- Capacity Building

ORGANIZATION

J-FORCE is a non-profit organization founded in Accra, Ghana in 2014 and managed by exuberant and optimistic young people between the ages of 12 to 30.

The vision of the organization is to develop moral, ethical, and transformational leadership in the youth as a lifestyle, to the end of bringing positive change to every community and the nations.

Since the inception of J-FORCE in Ghana, our activities have been categorized into six different phases.
